The screenshot shows the Microsoft Teams admin center interface. The main heading is "Manage users". Below the heading, there is a sub-heading: "You can manage Audio Conferencing settings, policies, phone numbers, and other features for people in your organization. Go to Admin center > Users to manage other user settings such as adding or deleting users, changing passwords, and assigning licenses." A note states: "Users without an active Teams license are excluded from the users list after 30 days." Below this, there is a table with columns: Display name, Username, Phone number, Usage location, State, and City. The table contains 10 rows of user data.
