Dear Sir/Madam,

Subject: Collaboration in Academic Activities between Swadhyaya Research Foundation and The Department of Sanskrit, Sree Sankara College Kalady

I hope this letter finds you in good health and high spirits. It gives me great pleasure to write to you on behalf of the Swadhyaya Research Foundation. We have been following the academic activities and achievements of the Department of Sanskrit at Sree Sankara College Kalady with great admiration and interest. Our foundation shares a common passion for the preservation, promotion, and propagation of Sanskrit and allied Indian Knowledge Systems, and we believe that there is immense potential for collaboration between our organisations to advance these goals.

We are writing to propose a formal collaboration between the Swadhyaya Research Foundation and the Department of Sanskrit at Sree Sankara College Kalady. This collaboration aims to foster academic excellence, research endeavours, and knowledge dissemination in the field of Sanskrit and allied Indian Knowledge Systems.

Scope of Collaboration:

Our proposed collaboration would encompass a range of academic activities, including but not limited to:

Seminars and Workshops: We propose organising joint seminars and workshops on topics related to Sanskrit literature, linguistics, philosophy, and other allied Indian Knowledge Systems. These events will provide a platform for scholars, faculty members, and students to exchange ideas and knowledge.

Research Projects: We envision joint research projects that will encourage interdisciplinary research in Sanskrit and allied Indian Knowledge Systems. Faculty members and students from both institutions can collaborate on these projects to produce high-quality research output.

Faculty Exchange: To enrich the academic experience, we propose faculty exchange programs where professors and scholars from Sree Sankara College Kalady can spend time at Swadhyaya

Research Foundation, and vice versa. This will facilitate the sharing of expertise and teaching methods.

Student Projects: We would like to extend our facilities and resources to students of the Department of Sanskrit for their research and academic projects. This includes access to our library, archives, and mentorship from our scholars.

Duration and Commencement:

We propose that this collaboration commence from the date of this letter, July 25, 2018, and remain in effect until mutually terminated or revised by both parties through a formal agreement.

Benefits of Collaboration:

This collaboration will bring several benefits to both our organizations. It will enhance the academic reputation of Sree Sankara College Kalady and provide valuable exposure and resources to our foundation. Moreover, it will contribute significantly to the advancement and preservation of Sanskrit and allied Indian Knowledge Systems, which is a shared goal.

Next Steps:

We are eager to discuss the details of this collaboration further and formalize our partnership through a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) or any other suitable agreement. Our representatives would be delighted to meet with you at your convenience to discuss the finer points and modalities of this collaboration.

We believe that this collaboration has the potential to make a meaningful contribution to the field of Sanskrit and allied Indian Knowledge Systems. We look forward to your positive response and hope to embark on this academic journey together.

For,

Secretary
Swadhyaya Research Foundation
